-- Chroniclings From South Texas Towns --Rockport.

Mrs. M. Hynes and family left Rockport for their home at Santa Rita.

Mr. & Mrs. D. H. Huddin of Rockport are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Terry.

Mrs. A. L. Patterson of Carrizo Springs is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Bassett.

Mr. A. L. Bracht entertained the members of the 10th and 11th grades of the public school Saturday night.

Mrs. Sam Querry had the ladies under my roof at the First Protestant Church Thursday afternoon.

Mr. E. D. Cox was hostess to the members of the Aid Society of the Magnolia Street Baptist Church Thursday afternoon.

The Fifty-two club held a meeting with Mrs. K. A. Stevens Thursday afternoon. Those present were Messrs. W. H. Baldwin, L. M. Bracht, W. H. Burcham, W. W. Wood, G. M. Hooper, E. B. Buckley, M. N. Mathis, J. D. Sodman, W. Y. Sedam and Agnes Brantley of Bay City; Misses Mabel Bracht, Mary Clark, Lizzie Mathis, Edna Evans, Linda Whitley.

The members of the Rockport High School Literary Society met Friday afternoon. The meeting was called to order by the president, Arthur Bracht, and after a prayer by Professor J. W. Hale, the following program was recessed: Song "Swanee River," by the society; reading, Mary Glass; vocal duet, Joice and Lois Sparkman; debate, "Resolved, that Country Life is better than City Life," affirmative, Ada Sparks and Welcome Chalmers; negative, Clara Barnard and Victor Crowell (the affirmative won); current events, Ethel Barnard; song "When the Dew is on the Rose" by the society.

Lee Paine was elected to organize a band from the society members.

The president appointed as social committee Anna Orr, Houghton, Jewel Sparks, and Oscar Brundt.

The members of the King's Daughters met with Mrs. A. L. Bracht Saturday afternoon. After business was disposed of the meeting resolved to have an informal gathering with fancy work as the chief occupation. Mrs. Roy Jackson presided at the coffee-table and sandwiches were served to the members. George Beers and Will attend the McAllen Business Men's Club on November 10. Miss Virginia McGary will act as maid of honor and the affair is to be of unusual brilliancy. Mr. and Mrs. Bevers will reside in Fort Worth where Mr. Bevers is engaged in business.

Mr. W. A. McLarry and his son Hugh, have purchased a new style Caterpillar Tractor Engine with gasoline attached which they will use upon putting into use breaking and culturing their big farm three miles west of Portland. This motor will do anything that horses or mules can do when it comes to drawing a load and is capable of pulling the Bates Steel Mill.

The Neasers, McHarris are very progressive in their farming and we wish them great success with this steel wonder.

Rev. Sheehorn of the Christian Church has been holding meetings each evening during past week. Great interest and good attendance has been the result with several new members being added.
